SATURDAY SUMMER SERVICES

Dear Friends:

I have hot news!

From Saturday July 2nd through Saturday September 10th the 5 p.m. Saturday service will combine the best aspects of the Come As You Are Eucharist (which we have done for several years on Saturdays) and the Koinonia services (which have taken place on Sundays at the same time as our traditional 10 a.m. service.)

Like the Come As You Are Eucharist this service will feature:

- It will be at 5 p.m. on Saturdays.
- Contemporary music coordinated by Kristin Woods and provided by an assortment of volunteer musicians.
- Casual and comfortable, no need to dress up; the clergy do not even vest!
- Instead of three readings and a Psalm we focus on the Gospel story.
- An opportunity to share thoughts and feelings about the Gospel story.

Like the Koinonia service

- Kids will be active participants in the Gospel story and the prayers. Each person is invited to pour sand into a vessel as they say their prayers.
- Kids assist in the serving and sharing of the sacrament.
- The service will take place in the Parish Hall.

Like both services the Summer Saturday Service will be shorter than the 10 a.m. service. Also like both services the Eucharist will be celebrated.

To save paper and to make it easier on visitors to enter into the service the entire liturgy and music will be projected on a screen.

So why are we doing this? WE are hoping it will provide families an additional time for worship on busy summer weekends.

Faithfully,
Fr. Dave

THE JOYS OF SUMMER

Well summer has finally arrived. All my mindless reality shows that I watch every winter have come to an end and the summer is full of reruns. What to do? What to do?

The days are full of sunshine and outdoor activities, but when the sun sets the options are limited of what to do on a work night. So I turn to books. I love to spend the summer nights reading a book and listening to good music. Getting caught up in the arts is a perfect activity.

My recommended summer reading is the mystery writer Louise Penny. I discovered her by chance while surfing Amazon.com. I was drawn to the cover of her first book, Still Life, because of the beautiful picture of the church on the cover. I ordered it and have since devoured all her books. It is impossible to put down one of her stories. Her books are so wonderfully written, with gorgeous descriptions, intriguing characters, and complicated plots. I have yet to solve one of the books. Her understanding of human nature and why people act as they do is marvelous. The books are all set in Quebec, Canada with many of the stories set in a small imaginary town named Three Pines. The writing is very visual and the characters so real that I guarantee you will want to move there.

Some reviews for Still Life:

New York Times Sunday Book Review, Marilyn Stasio

"The beauty of Louise Penny's auspicious debut novel, STILL LIFE, is that it's composed entirely of grace notes, all related to the central mystery of who shot an arrow into the heart of

Miss Jane Neal... But, like her neighbors in the picturesque Canadian village of Three Pines, the dear old thing had hidden depths, courtesy of an author whose deceptively simple style masks the complex patterns of a well-devised plot...Chief Inspector Armand Gamache of the Sûreté du Québec, who is as bemused as we are by life in Three Pines, has the wit and insight to look well beyond its idyllic surface."

Chicago Tribune, Crime watch, Dick Adler

"It's hard to decide what provides the most pleasure in this enjoyable book: Gamache, a shrewd and kindly man constantly surprised by homicide; the village, which sounds at first like an ideal place to escape from civilization; or the clever and carefully constructed plot."

Louise Penny has a wonderful website and a daily blog that is fun to follow. Her website also offers advice on getting your book published. She is also on Facebook and very interactive with her readers. She has won numerous awards for each of her books, and as one gets lost in her writing it is easy to understand why the accolades keep coming her way. Please read her books in order as sometimes a small clue to a previous crime is mentioned.

So these summer nights I'll be reliving the magical beauty of Three Pines and listening to music and chatting with friends. Enjoy your summer, and I'll see you at Trinity.

CLAYTON A. MCLEMORE EARNs THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

“Duty to God
Duty To Others
Duty To Self”

On Sunday June 5, with family members, friends and well wishers, and two other recipients Clayton McLemore was honored at an Eagle Scout Ceremony at Suplee Presbyterian Church.

Clayton has been involved with Scouting for most of his life, joining Cub Pack 408 in Fort Washington in 1999, and transferring to Pack 405 in 2000, when Maple Glen Elementary opened. In February 2004 he earned the Arrow of Light award and crossed over into Troop 542.

In his seven years in Troop 542, Clayton has earned 32 merit badges, and been recognized four times for excellent meeting and trip attendance. His life has been enriched by camping, leadership, friendship and adventure. In addition to meetings and camping trips, he has attended six annual summer camps at Resica Falls and Treasure Island and twice traveled to Canada for Olympia Scope. Since becoming eligible at 14, Clayton has participated in every high adventure trip, including sailing the Florida Keys, white-water canoeing and rock climbing in Pennsylvania, and backpacking twice at Philmont Scout Ranch. On the 2010 Philmont trip he was joined by his father, Kevin, and his brother, Charlie, with whom he has shared many of his scouting experiences.

Clayton has been a member of the Cobra, Lightning, Eagle, and Shark patrols. He has learned leadership in the roles of Den Chief, Lead Instructor, Patrol Leader, and Troop Guide. He has taken particular satisfaction in guiding younger Scouts, and in his most recent role as Troop Guide his patrol of first year Scouts earned first place awards in both Troop 542's Scout Skills competition as well as in the district's Gold Rush competition.

Clayton selected the Militia Hill Day Use Area in Fort Washington State Park for his Eagle leadership service project. He led a group of youth and adults who refurbished and rebuilt seven picnic tables, cleaned and restored two fire pits, built several new fireside benches and cleared the areas of debris, fully restoring the site for public camping and day use.

Clayton is an active member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Ambler, where he has served as an acolyte and crucifer for over 7 years and with whom he has undertaken mission trips to work in Florida and West Virginia.

This is Clayton's senior year at Upper Dublin High School, where he has continually challenged himself with honors and AP courses in a range of academic subjects from calculus and physics to Spanish and psychology. He was honored in 2011 as a National Merit Scholarship Finalist, and he has consistently been on the school honor roll for his academic achievements. His extra-curricular activities have included robotics, swimming, science fiction club, and quiz bowl. In the summer, Clayton enjoys swimming for the Fort Washington Sharks and spending time with his family and friends.

Next fall, Clayton will attend Penn State University in State College, where he plans to study engineering.

Clayton would like to express his thanks to his parents, the troop's leaders, and all the other people who have supported him on his trail to Eagle.

A SORT OF OVERVIEW OF THE ORDINATION PROCESS

Anyone can go to seminary but one cannot just decide to be a priest or deacon in the Episcopal Church. The church assists individuals in discerning whether they are being called to ordained or some other special ministry through a many layered discernment process which includes:

1. Meeting with the Rector
2. Meeting with the Bishop
3. Psychological exams
4. Approval of the Vestry

After these steps have been taken and there is agreement that there may be a call to ordained ministry the following steps are taken.

1. A Parish Advisory Committee on Ministry (PACM) is formed, appointed by the Rector, to meet about 8 times to assist and challenge the individual in thinking through the call.
2. If the PACM affirms a call the individual is recommended to the Vestry and Rector who reports its findings to the Bishop and Commission on Ministry.
3. The Individual is invited to a Pre-postulancy conference sponsored by the Commission on Ministry. This is a weekend of prayer and interviews with members of the Commission on Ministry.
4. If the individual's call is affirmed and the Bishop agrees the person becomes a postulant for holy orders.
5. Formal training takes place for both priests and deacons. Generally postulants for the priesthood go off to seminary and deacons are formed through a diocese directed program of on-line education and regular formation gatherings.
6. Eventually if the training goes well and after more interviews, the approval of the Vestry, the Commission on Ministry and the Bishop, an individual is made a Candidate.
7. Candidates complete their training, pass rigorous ordination exams, undergo another psychological exam and are then ordained.
8. Priests are first ordained to the transitional diaconate for at least six months and then ordained as priests. Those who have been trained and formed as deacons have just one ordination. All ordinations take place at the Cathedral.

Trinity Church has been blessed in the last several years to walk with 7 individuals through this process.

AN UPDATE ON INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE BEEN OR ARE IN THE ORDINATION PROCESS

KARYNJEAN DICKHOFF is completing her seminary education at Lutheran Seminary In Philadelphia. After many years living in this area and serving Trinity Church in so many capacities Karynjean had the enthusiastic endorsement of Fr. Dave, her PACM and the Vestry but was not made a postulant. Karynjean is moving to Scranton, PA where she hopes to teach, find a new church home and in a year or so enter the ordination process in the Diocese of Bethlehem.

TED OLSON came to Trinity as a therapist and former Roman Catholic priest. Ted had the enthusiastic support of the Rector, his PACM, and the Vestry. Ted was made a Postulant but through the discernment process Ted returned to the Roman Catholic church believing he was called to be in church with his partner Jack and to continue his therapy practice.

BEN WALLIS was made a postulant for Holy Orders. Began his seminary training at Lutheran Seminary but moved to New York City with his wife Cori to complete his training at the General Seminary. Since going to New York Ben has been made a Candidate for Holy Orders. Ben was also made a Daddy with the birth of his daughter Charlotte Ann. Ben will complete his seminary training, his General Ordination exams and is on track to be ordained to the transitional diaconate in June 2012.

DENNIS REID, JR. has been made a postulant for Holy Orders and will begin his preparation at the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Virginia. Between college graduation and seminary Dennis has served at All Hallows Church as its youth minister and children's formation coordinator. If everything goes well in seminary and he is made a candidate Dennis should be ordained to the transitional diaconate in June 2014!

JAY WALTON has been made a postulant for Holy Orders and will begin his formal preparation at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in California. CDSP is a founding member of the ecumenical Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California. Being in California will make it easier and less expensive for Jay to spend time with his son Ryan who lives in Arizona!

GREG GIBSON knowing that he was called to study theology as he actively worked to discern his vocation Greg has been studying at Fuller Seminary. Since he has been at Fuller Greg has been at All Saints Episcopal Church in Pasadena California for his filed work. Greg who started coming to Trinity while he was in college and who worked with our youth group has been approved by Bishop Lee to form a PACM and to attend the Pre-Postulancy Conference in January or February. His PACM will meet with him throughout the summer. This summer Gregg is doing his Clinical Pastoral Experience at Jefferson Hospital.

JUDY LANDIS and her husband Tom started attending Trinity a couple of years ago as she prepared to go to Lutheran Seminary through the Lutheran Synod's ordination process. After two years here and in seminary, Judy has decided that she really is more at home in the Episcopal Church. Judy as met with Fr. Dave and Mary and Fr. Dave will be meeting with Bishop Bennison to see if we might begin her discernment of a call to be an Episcopal priest rather than a Lutheran pastor.

- Fr. Dave

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On July 1, 1961 Veronica and Joseph Grogan were wed at Our Lady of Angels

Church, Bronx, NY. Veronica and Joe will be celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary by renewing their vows on Saturday, July 23, 2011 at a 12 Noon service at Trinity presided over by Father Dave. All our Trinity friends are welcome to join us at this celebration.

THE HISTORY OF THE RED ROSE AWARD

When Dr. Richard Mattison built the original Trinity Church building in 1898, he gave it as a memorial to his daughter, Victoria Mattison, who died at the age of four. Dr. Mattison, a wealthy industrialist, whose home was what is now called the "castle" at St. Mary's Villa was a long time member and Rector's Warden at Trinity Church.

The only condition that Dr. Mattison placed on the gift to the Diocese was that the Diocese require as rent payment from our congregation one red rose each year. In recent years, the Diocese of Pennsylvania turned the deed to the church over to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Trinity Church thus ending our obligation to pay the annual rent of one red rose.

Yet, the tradition of presenting a red rose on Trinity Sunday continues. No longer is it presented as payment of rent but it is now given in thanksgiving for the generosity of Richard Mattison and all the men, women, and children who for 113 years have given of their time talent and treasure for the spread of God's kingdom in the Ambler Area.

On Trinity Sunday, June 19, 2011, we presented a red rose to Sue Adair. Sue is faithful in attendance, choir and the healing prayer ministry. Sue served on the Vestry of Trinity Church for six years. She has been generous to the church financially and by giving to the church a grand piano and an organ for the parish hall. Sue has also used her quilting gifts to benefit the parish. Many members of Trinity Church work at Sue's business, Feast and Fancy, and many others have come to this church through her store. Sue serves more than gourmet food at her shop as she faithfully prays for many of her customers.

LEISURE MINISTRIES PROGRAM

The Leisure Ministries Program of the PA Council of Churches (www.pachurches.org) one of our state's better kept secrets. Since 1960, from Memorial Day through Labor Day the state parks within Pennsylvania have been home to people of many denominations serving God through chaplaincy. This year there are 25 chaplains visiting campers and conducting ecumenical worship services at 38 state parks and private campgrounds.

"Last year I had the good fortune to be such a servant. As the chaplain at Codorus State Park in Hanover PA I conducted Sunday worship services, organized Saturday activities for the park visitors and visited campsites and people each week ."

Worship is conducted in an outside amphitheater. Not all parks have chaplains. The PA Council of Churches tries to place chaplains at all state parks that have overnight camping facilities, but sometimes this is not possible due to lack of money or local committees.

"I encourage you all to visit the Council's website. Go to French Creek, or Hickory Run, or Codorus or any of the other state parks and experience first-hand what this ministry is like."

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EFM) TRINITY CLASS UPDATE

This May marked the successful completion of the study year for two EFM classes here at Trinity. One class was held Monday evenings and the other Wednesday mornings. In the Monday evening group we had five participants. Four were first year students and one third year member. They had a marvelous year, were creative and a very close group. The Wednesday morning group had five members, four were third year and two completed their fourth year and graduated. One was from Trinity, Lynne Powley and the other from Pottstown, Peter Hammonds. They had great success doing many Theological Reflections over the year. TR's and group interaction are the heart of the EFM experience. Next year, in this class, we will have four graduates, all from Trinity. EFM is a wonderful experience for all who wish to move closer to God. There are openings for next year in both groups, which start in September and run weekly through mid-May. Should you be interested in the unique experience of EFM please contact Father Dave, Reita Detwiler, Kelly Ruprecht or Ed Mahler.

Theological Reflection

“Love is patient; love is kind. . . ”
1 Corinthians 13.4

Well.....love may be patient; the problem is, too often, I’m not. Patience is one of those virtues that exists in short supply when I find myself faced with the disruption of well - conceived plans. Patience can sometimes be lacking when my values clash with competing values. When I cannot be freed from a determined outcome, my patience is inadequate.

Some wise person somewhere said, “We must be willing to let go of the life we have planned so as to have the life that is waiting for us.” That requires patience. I keep forgetting – my urgencies are not God’s. Freedom to serve Christ is compromised in impatience; in fact, one could argue that impatience equals a lack of trust in God.

In a recent entry in my prayer journal, I asked the question: “What do I lose when I am not patient?”

The response that came:

You lose your connectedness to God
You lose your connectedness to the beauty of the other
You lose .....

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can; and not only the wisdom, but the patience to know the difference.
